What Alumni say

“Getting training directly from the ‘horse’s mouth’ is more valuable to me—and other people looking to work with me—than having my knowledge certified by a third party who has not created the Incoterms® rules.”

Praveenkumar Miriyala

Trade Specialist, India

“The critical thing with the Incoterms® rules is to choose the right rule for the right trade: when is FCA better than FOB, or DPU better than EXW? Get it wrong and profits quickly become losses. Avoid surprises with the ICC Academy’s online training and testing on Incoterms® 2020—it is a valuable investment.”
