Target audience

General practitioners working in banks, corporates, or financial institutions in functions such as Relationship Management, Credit, Compliance, etc. but with an interest in trade finance.

Course objectives

This introductory course provides a practical overview of the first type of trade financing instrument based on shipping documents and bank intermediation. In the trade world this operation is also known as “Collection”.

In this course, you will learn how to describe the two types of Documentary Collections, portray the cycle in its entirety, and understand the role and perspective of a Relationship Manager in this cycle. Additionally, you will obtain a clear insight into the risks and documents involved in a Documentary Collection.

Course outline

Lesson 1	What is a Documentary Collection?	Lesson 6	Comparison of the use of Acceptance Terms versus Sight
Lesson 2	How does a Documentary Collection work?	Lesson 7	The bank's roles and obligations
Lesson 3	What are the various documents that can be called for under a Documentary Collection?	Lesson 8	Financing the Documentary Collection
Lesson 4	International Chamber of Commerce ("ICC")	Lesson 9	The Documentary Collection—the RM's perspective
Lesson 5	Value of the Documentary Collection to exporters and importers	Lesson 10	Trade Operations / Legal & Compliance

Assessment

This eLearning course will include a self-assessment tool to help you prepare for the Global Trade Certificate (GTC) Final Examination if you choose to obtain this Certificate. The passing grade for the Final Examination is set at 70%.
