

International Trade

Export/Import Certificate (EIC)

The Export/Import Certificate (EIC) provides comprehensive and practical knowledge on how to conduct cross-border transactions. This professional certificate programme offers an in-depth understanding of international trade processes and their related risks to successfully compete in foreign markets.

88% of our survey respondents said the certification helped them bridge their knowledge gap

Who's taking the EIC?

International trade professionals, including auditors, customs brokers, export and import managers, forwarders and carriers, insurance providers, trade finance bankers, private and government inspectors, trade lawyers and trade promotion executives.

Why take the EIC?

- Pick up on the key market-entry strategies from industry best practices
- Avoid costly mistakes by identifying the trade risks in a transaction
- Improve skills in negotiation and risk management by better understanding the global market

Certificate structure

Comprising of 5 courses, the programme was created by leading trade expert, Guillermo Jimenez, author of the best-selling publication, "The ICC Guide to Export/Import: Global Standards for International Trade". Each course covers the essential skills required to effectively trade worldwide and manage an international business, from negotiating contracts to resolving cross-border disputes.

About the ICC Academy

The ICC Academy was founded in 2015 as a training and knowledge hub for trade professionals worldwide. We are the educational arm of the International Chamber of Commerce (ICC), the world's business organisation setting rules and standards that facilitate around two-thirds of global trade in goods. We offer a wide range of learning resources, including market-leading certifications, short courses and the ICC Digital Library that all leverage ICC's network of over 45 million members in more than 170 countries, including many of the world's largest companies, SMEs, business associations and local chambers of commerce.
